

Tharrie, Charles

Exeter, New J

Dec 1912

October 7th, 1913

Professor Harris,
Western Reserve University,
Cleveland.

Dear Professor Harris:

One of our Lecturers in German has taken ill and we are looking for a substitute. Can you recommend any young man who would come to us for the winter, staying with us until the end of May? We could offer him $1200. He would need to take up his duties at once.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

October 13th, 1913

Professor Charles Harris,
Western Reserve University,
Cleveland.

Dear Professor Harris:

Many thanks for your letter with the mention of the name of Mr. Schuessler as a possible occupant for our vacant position. I am glad, however, to be able to say that we seem to be likely to get a man from Chicago who will meet our needs.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

